Awards Information

At Yu Neng Primary, we encourage our students to excel in both academic and non-academic areas. During the ceremony, students will receive different awards that affirm and celebrate their outstanding achievements. The following details the different award categories.

a.	The MOE Edusave Character Awards (ECHA) are given to students who have displayed exemplary character strengths and outstanding personal qualities through their behaviour and actions.
b.	The MOE Edusave Awards for Achievement, Good Leadership and Service (EAGLES) are given to P4 to P6 students who have demonstrated leadership qualities, achievements in co-curricular activities and contributions to community services over the school year. For more information, please access this link: https://www.moe.gov.sg/financial-matters/awards-scholarships/edusave-awards .
c.	The YN Book Prize is given to students who have performed well throughout the year in their academic subjects. The P4-P6 YN Best Progress is given to students who have shown good progress and attitude in their learning.
d.	The Best Progress in Chinese Language which is sponsored by Singapore Federation of Chinese Clan Association is given to one student per level from P3-P6 who has shown good progress in the language.
e.	The School Advisory Committee (SAC) bursary award is given to P3-P6 students under Financial Assistance Scheme (FAS) who have shown good academic progress and conduct.

We will also take the opportunity to affirm students from Class of 2022 who have achieved excellent academic performance in their Primary School Leaving Examinations (PSLE). This year, we have added YN Alumni Arts Award to affirm students who have excelled in the performing arts. In addition, we will be presenting the prestigious Alumni-School Advisory Committee (Alumni-SAC) All-Rounder Award to two outstanding students.
